Sales Internship

Location Fort Myers, FL

The Sales Internship is a comprehensive program in our small and midsize business (SMB) sales channel. Interns will work to manage a group of named accounts, assist in the retention and growth of existing clients, and forge relationships with prospective clients.

You are:

- A rising college senior with expected graduation date within one year
- Willing to relocate to Fort Myers, FL, for the duration of the program
- Articulate, organized and results-oriented
- A strong student with a 3.0 or higher GPA, and leadership or work experience

You will:

- Gain real-world experience in a high-performing sales environment
- Receive extensive training to prepare you for the role
- Interact with and receive coaching from senior-level sales managers
- Work directly with clients and prospects to achieve business goals
- Complete a final project in the form of a case study to address business initiatives

Gartner will:

- Pay you a competitive salary with the opportunity for a performance-based bonus upon program completion
- Provide paid housing for duration of the program
- Extend full-time job offers to exceptional performers
